

“The best vocation leaders should be the priests themselves. We may not mount pulpits to urge parents to bear children, unless we priests bear spiritual children. On the last day, God will ask us priests: ‘Where are your children? How many vocations have you fostered?’ Though it is not given to any of us to implant the vocation, it is nonetheless within our power to widen the capacity for receptivity. We fertilize the soil by good example and encouragement.”

— Archbishop
Fulton J. Sheen

“Without the priest, the passion and death of our Lord would be of no avail. It is the priest who continues the work of redemption here on earth.... What use would be a house filled with gold, were there no one to open its door? The priest holds the key to the treasures of heaven: it is he who opens the door: he is the steward of the good Lord; the administrator of His goods.... Leave a parish for 20 years without a priest and they will end by worshipping the beasts there.... The priest is not a priest for himself, he is a priest for you.”

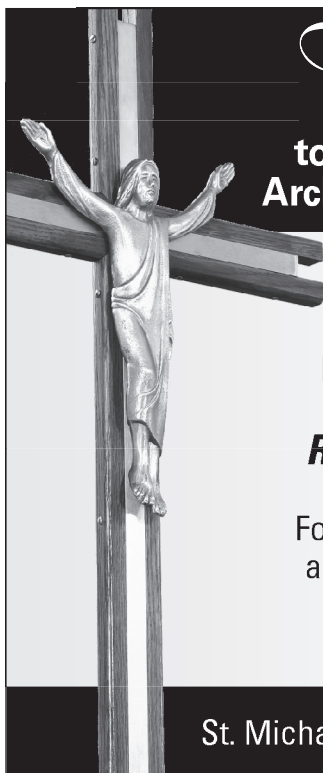

— St. John Vianney

“Brother Steve has a really good sense of humor.” (9-year-old)

“Brother Steve stepped in after we were without a permanent pastor for a year and immediately embraced his first time position as pastor of a parish.

He has shown exemplary qualities of leadership both spiritually and in the day to day running of the parishes and has done so with grace, kindness and always a sense of humor. As we merge our parishes and look to the future we are blessed to have Brother Steve as our pastor.”

(Council member)

“God has gifted our Holyland Cluster Parishes with a wonderful pastor, Rev. Steve Kropp. He is a marvelous spiritual leader who listens and empowers parishioners to share their gifts and talents. We are grateful for his life-giving presence.”

He made us feel welcome in his home, and most of all - in the church. We look forward to raising our family in the community of St. Isadore.”
