19th century English theologian John Henry Newman: "Newman spoke of not being called only once but many times. All through our life Christ is calling us. He works through our natural talents and the ever-changing circumstances of our lives. How grateful I am for all who have helped me and continue to help me be attuned to the tiny whispering sound of God's voice."

Bishop Richard J. Sklba

Born in Racine to Stephen and Ann Sklba, Bishop Richard J. Sklba has three siblings, William Sklba, Kathryn Wegner and Paul Sklba. He attended Hansche Public Grade School and St. Catherine High School, both located in Racine. He received his priestly formation from Saint Francis Minor Seminary, the North American College, Pontifical Biblical Institute, and the University of St. Thomas Aquinas, all in Rome. He was ordained to the priesthood Dec. 20, 1959, at the chapel of the North American College in Rome.

Bishop Sklba began his priestly ministry as an associate pastor at St. Mary, Elm Grove, 1960-1962. He continued his ministry as a lecturer in the Old Testament at Loyola University, Chicago, 1964-1965; celebrated weekend Masses at

The faith communities of St. Mary's in Mayville and St. Andrew's in LeRoy congratulate

Father Thomas Biersack
on 29 years of Priesthood.

Our parishes have been blessed with his leadership, spiritual guidance and support for five of those years.

We "Thank You" Father Tom, and ask God to continue to bless you in your ministry.

Father Aurelio Perez

We, the parishioners of St. Clare Church, Wind Lake are thankful that you have been our administrator for the last two years.

WE ARE GRATEFUL:

- For your sermons that are interesting, well thought out and which make us better Christians
- For the smile on your face and warmth you reflect as you greet each parishioner
- For your counsel to individual parishioners in their time of need
- For all of your efforts to keep St. Clare Church running efficiently as a parish
- For your participation and guidance at our Parish Council and related committee meetings
- For making us proud to be members of the St. Clare Faith Community

THANK YOU! ST. CLARE FAITH COMMUNITY
