

Where Donations Go

Each year the religion sector receives the largest share of charitable donations. In 2011 nearly $300 billion was given to charities in these areas.

*International affairs, 8 percent; public-society benefit, 7 percent; arts, culture and humanities, 4 percent; environment and animals, 3 percent.