

YOUR AUDIENCE YOUR CATHOLIC HERALD

Affordable, effective advertising

The Catholic Herald informs, forms and inspires a 10-county family of 550,000 Catholics in southeastern Wisconsin to learn, grow and share our faith. Our biweekly newspaper is full of content and advertisers geared toward families, support, assistance, guidance and faith, and reflects the values we share within our strong Catholic community.

Milwaukee is one of the top five most Catholic cities in the nation, and the Milwaukee Catholic Herald is the perfect tool for any advertiser seeking those who are seeking.

WHO READS THE CATHOLIC HERALD?

Catholics invite the Catholic Herald into their homes because it nourishes their faith and affirms family values, Catholic social teaching, the teachings of the Church, and continued formation through the Good News with the Archdiocese of Milwaukee: local hot topics, individual stories, and sharing the progress and news within our 189 parishes and 101 Catholic schools.

SCHOOLS

Catholic Herald readers are homeowners, investors, leaders of their faith, business leaders, volunteers, service-oriented and faithful to their biweekly resource. They rely on the Catholic Herald to provide services and information they can trust. Our publication serves older Catholics, young adult Catholics and, especially, Catholic families.

WHERE THEY LIVE

Close to 550,000 Catholics reside in the 10 counties of southeastern Wisconsin served by the Catholic Herald: Dodge, Fond du Lac, Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Sheboygan, Walworth, Washington and Waukesha.
